

Bem vindo ao Brasil

2017 Contemporary Scholars Conference

Nuffield Value

INTEGRITY

Cooperative Conversation Model

In this room:

- 80 active participants
- 12 countries
- Multiple languages
- Areas of expertise
- Strong beliefs
- Personal agendas
- Partial Information
- Strong Opinions
- Engaged Leaders

Cooperative Conversation Model

- Provides tools to use as a leader in the future
- Nuffield as Professional Development
  - Building personal capacity
  - Developing empathy
  - Meeting group objectives
  - Forging consensus

Cooperative Conversation Model

- Focus goes beyond individual questions
- Guiding conversations to build broader awareness
- Using experts as the starting point
- The knowledge is in the room

Implementation

- Speakers cover 20 to 30 minutes
- 1 minute silent reflection and individual question formation
  - Write question down on a sticky note
- 9 minutes table discussion and engagement
- Each table decides on their question
  - Who? What? Why? When? Where? How?
- Table chair manages the conversation, time and talking balls
- New table chair for every speaker
- New voice for every question

Daily Evaluation Assignment

On 3 separate sticky notes, answer the following:

- 1) What the most useful part of today's sessions?
- 2) What aspects, if any, could be improved?
- 3) Share what ideas/actions you learned today that will benefit you personally and/or professionally

Nuffield International Values

- Humility: Respect the views and positions of others
- Integrity: Inspire scholars to make a difference and be true to their word
- Reciprocity: A mindset of giving back to others, and continued engagement in the Nuffield 'family'
- Respectful: Respect the earth's resources for future generations
- Embrace human and agricultural Diversity
- Open-minded: Curious, change-able, solution orientation